

Sprinter Rail System - Northern San Diego County

The Sprinter runs 22 miles along the Highway 78 corridor in Northern San Diego County to transport passengers to work, school, shopping centers and other activities.

At the Oceanside Transit Center Passengers can go north to connect to the Los Angeles area via Metrolink or Amtrak. To the south, passengers can connect to San Diego via the Coaster or Amtrak rail services.

