VA GREATER LOS ANGELES HOSTS THE 2014 5TH ANNUAL LAW ENFORCEMENT APPRECIATION DAY

LOS ANGELES - VA Greater Los Angeles Healthcare System (VAGLAHS) in partnership with various Los Angeles (LA) Law Enforcement agencies will be hosting its 5th Annual Law Enforcement Appreciation Day and Job Fair on Tuesday, May 13, 2014 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in support of Veterans, local Law Enforcement Agencies and community.

“We’re very proud of the success this event has had in the past,” said Gerald Casey, Police Chief, VAGLAHS. “Many of our Veterans want to continue to serve their country and community. This event helps them, and the community, learn more about what we do.”

The event is held during National Law Enforcement Memorial Week and is open to the public. Activities include a special tribute to Law Enforcement, celebrity visits, agency demonstrations, exotic food trucks and various LA County Law Enforcement Representatives.

For additional information visit <http://go.usa.gov/Karm>. Media must RSVP by calling Blake Anderson at 310.268.3858.

About VAGLAHS: VAGLAHS is the largest healthcare system within the VA and is one component of the VA Desert Pacific Healthcare Network offering services to Veterans residing in Southern California and Southern Nevada. GLA consists of three ambulatory care centers, a tertiary care facility, and ten community based outpatient clinics. GLA serves Veterans residing throughout five counties: Los Angeles, Ventura, Kern, Santa Barbara, and San Luis Obispo. There are 1.4 million Veterans in the GLA service area.
