

Invitation

Contact:
GLA Voluntary Services
(310) 478-3711, ext 42441 Office

“Valentines for Veterans” VA GLA National Salute to Veterans Featuring Musical Legend The Grass Roots

In honor of National Salute to Veterans month, VA Greater Los Angeles Healthcare System (GLA) invites you to a free concert by The Grass Roots. The Grass Roots, famous for such hits as “Temptation Eyes” and “Bella Linda” will perform to honor the men and women in uniform who served this country. National Salute to Veterans month honors Veterans, increases community awareness of VA's role in providing comprehensive medical care to Veterans and encourages Americans to visit hospitalized Veterans and work as VA volunteers.

WHAT: The National Salute to Veteran Patients PUBLIC concert will open with an introduction from GLA Executive Leadership and VA Director of Voluntary Services. Following introductions, The Grass Roots hits the stage to play popular tunes from the Sixties to Veterans, families, and guests. Help Hospitalized Veterans, a non-profit organization serving hospitalized Veterans community since 1971, is sponsoring this event along with VA Voluntary Services, to make sure Veterans in the community can enjoy great talent with a loved one for Valentine’s Day.

WHO: The Grass Roots, GLA Executive Leadership, and VA Director of Voluntary Services

WHEN: Monday, February 13, at 5:00 p.m.

WHERE: West Los Angeles VA Medical Center campus, Wadsworth Theater

DETAILS: Tickets are available for pick-up in building 258, room 208. Seating is limited and tickets are available on a first come, first served basis. All attendees should be over the age of eighteen. Please note, REFRESHMENTS WILL NOT BE SERVED so arrive well fed and ready to rock!

RSVP: To RSVP and for more information, please contact GLA Voluntary Service at (310) 478-3711, ext 42441 or visit www.losangeles.va.gov.

Follow the VA Greater Los Angeles on Facebook and Twitter

